HORMONAL CARCINOGENESIS

Edited by Jonathan J. Li, PhD, Hormonal Carcinogenesis Laboratory, Washington State University, Pullman, WA
Satyabrata Nandi, PhD, Cancer Research Laboratory, University of California, Berkeley, CA
Sara A. Li, PhD, Hormonal Carcinogenesis Laboratory, Washington State University, Pullman, WA

This volume identifies emerging concepts and approaches in the field of hormonal carcinogenesis, and discusses current research studies, both human and animal, which contribute pertinent knowledge to this increasingly important subject.

Addresses important issues such as the causal relation between estrogen replacement therapy and the risk of breast cancer. Hormonal Carcinogenesis is of interest to a wide range of scientists including experimental biologists, molecular biologists, pathologists, and oncologists.
